spects at Bennings. The public fared badly. Al Powell at odds-on in the fourth race was the first favorite to make good for the form players. The books, however, did not keep all the money by any means. They were races on horses trained by Billy Garth. The big Virginian put Hyperion over in the first race after he had been backed from 3 to 1 to 2 to 1. Garth red a coup on the second will with 10 to 1 about his chances. Favorite players got another jolt in the third race when Jack McKeon, backed from 10 to 1 to 7 to 1, won easily by three lengths from Judge White, the second choire, which we four lengths before Dekaber, thiral Vagabond, the 9 to 5 favorite, led by several lengths to the stretch, where gan to look for a hole in Vagabond by First C.

Al Powell at 6 to 5, was the first favorite of the day to win. The issue was never in doubt. Shaw hustled him into the lead around the first turn. Nothing could keep up. At the end he was eased up to win by one length from Orphan Lad. The latter closed strong under the whip and outgamed Mode for the place.

Pacon, the even-money favorite, graduated from the maiden class in the fifth without great effort. He made all the running and at the end drew away handliy to win by three lengths from Zany, which best Kuro a length for the place.

Balloon in Which Nocquet Ascended Yesterday Discovered by Life-Savers on Long Island Shore, but Aeronaut Is Missing.

FOOTPRINTS NEAR GAS BAG FOLLOWED TO SALT MARSH

Tug Ordered Out by Navy Department to Cruise Outside Breakers and Great South Bay Being Searched by Men in Launches and Rowboats.

After many hours of optimism the friends of Paul Nocquet, sculptor and aeronaut, whose balloon was found last night on the ocean's rim at Jones's Beach, L. I., have about given up hope of finding him alive.

The footsteps leading easterly from the stranded gas bag, on which the hopes of his safety were based, have been traced to a salt marsh, where there are many quagmires and quicksands. A careful examination of the beach all about reveals no other track, and the Frenchman may have stumbled to his death among the rushes or fallen into a deep inlet and been
